Are You Planning a Career Change?

- ❖ Are you satisfied with your current career?
- ❖ Would you like to develop your career and/or income?
- ❖ What are your long-term career goals?
- ❖ If you are not achieving success, what's preventing you from this?
- ❖ Do you have stress related work issues?
- ❖ Are you being “power harassed”? If so, how have you been managing this situation?
- ❖ Has your company gone through corporate restructuring?
- ❖ Have you lost your job, or are you in fear of losing your job?

Planning a career change truly is a life decision. We at Strategic Consulting Japan are here to offer neutral, professional advice.

Below Are a Few Things To Consider When Making a Career Change

- ❖ What are your long-term career goals, how will this change positively/negatively impact those goals?
- ❖ Why are you feeling restless in your current role, and have you discussed this with your superiors?
- ❖ Moving solely for the purpose of more money is not always the best decision.
- ❖ More important than money is the business challenge, professional development, long-term career path and job satisfaction. This is not to say you can't or shouldn't negotiate a better package, however this should not be the primary reason for changing your job/career.
